APPENDIX B

NOAA PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Strategic Goals Commerce and Transportation Supporting NOAA's Mission Ecosystems Climate Weather and Water Support the Nation's Understand climate Provide critical sup-port for NOAA's Protect, restore, and Serve society's needs manage the use of variability and change commerce with inforfor weather and water coastal and ocean information. mation for safe, effiresources through ability to plan and cient, and environmenan ecosystem approach tally sound transportarespond. to management. Lead and Program Lead: John H. Dunnigan Lead: Frank P. Kelly Lead: Charles W. Manager: Chester (NMFS) J. Koblinsky (OAR) (NWS) Challstrom (NOS) Programs and Sub-Goals Local Forecasts and Marine Transportation Habitat Climate Observations Satellite Services and Analysis Warnings • Coasts, Estuaries, and • Corals Systems Sub-goal Lead: Colleen Hartman Coastal and Marine Climate Forcing Aviation Weather Resources • Protected Species • Climate Predictions and Oceans • Space Weather Marine Weather (NESDIS) • Geodesy • NOAA Emergency Projections Geostationary Satellite • Fisheries Management Climate and Ecosystems Hydrology Acquisition Aquaculture • Regional Decision Sup- Air Quality Response Polar Satellite Acquisition Enforcement Environmental Modeling Commercial and Remote port Satellite Services Ecosystem Observations Weather Water Science, Sensing Licensing • Ecosystem Research Technology, and Infusion Surface Weather Fleet Services Sub-goal Lead: Elizabeth White (NMAO) Aircraft Replacement Fleet ReplacementMarine Operations and Maintenance Aircraft Services Leadership Sub-goal Lead: Mitchell Luxenberg (NOS) NOAA Headquarters • Line Office Headquarters Homeland Security Mission Support Sub-goal Lead: William Broglie (CAO); Deputy Lead: Susan Sutherland (CAO) Administrative Services Financial Services Workforce Management Acquisitions and Grants Information Technology Facilities Note: Blue type denotes matrix elements.